IONE.

E. B. Gorton and wife returned from a short visit in and about Cecil Wednesday of last week.

Dr. Davis, dentist, made a business trip to Portland last week, spending a few days down there.

Walter Dobyns was crippled up with a sore leg for a few days last week but is around once more.

Mrs. T. A. King took Thursday morning's train for a visit with friends over in the John Day country.

Mrs. George Henry came in on Monday evening's train to visit with friends and relatives for a short time.

Mrs. John Cochran went out to the Smouse ranch last week to help feed the hungry harvesters for a few weeks.

Mrs. Ralph Hymer went down to Hood River last Monday morning to visit with friends and relatives for a few days.

Oscar Williamson and family have moved to town from the ranch and are preparing to start their children to school.

We saw Harley Davidson, one of our old-time school boys, on the street last week, shaking hands with old friends.

Miss Ella Mason, of Portland, came up to Ione Thursday last and is now out at the Mason ranch on Rhea creek visiting her mother.

Shorty Shaver is very busy these days putting a good cellar on his home place in Ione. He is also building a good store house over it.

Mrs. Akers and Mrs. Thomas came to Ione on Thursday evening's train and went out to R. M. Akers' ranch in the Gooseberry country the following day.

A. Carlson was in from his Gooseberry ranch last week and reports harvesting progressing fine. He says his grain is making about 30 bushels per acre.

Harry Warren and his wife were in town for a few days last week. His mother went down to Portland last Friday morning to be absent a few days attending to business matters.

Miss Bessie Smith, who has been helping wait on table at the hotel in Ione, left last Saturday morning for The Dalles, where it is reported she is to marry Bill Hughes, of Heppner. We wish the young couple many happy years.

Miss Edna Woolery and Miss Johnson, who have been up in the tall timber for the past six weeks, returned to Ione Wednesday of last week having had a dandy good outing. Edna brought back 48 quarts of those nice, juicy little things called huckleberries.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sperry, who have been living at Brownsville for some time past, came to Ione the other day to join their family who have been here for some little time. C. B. says the Valley is a fine place to live if a man has plenty of dough, but Ione is good enough for him.

LEXINGTON.

School commences Monday, Sept. 2. Minnie Sutherland went to Cecil on Monday to be gone some time.

Miss Mary Graham returned to her home after a pleasant visit of a week with friends here.

Miss Maude McMillan and Miss Mary Graham were Heppner visitors the middle of the week.

A good time was reported by the crowd who attended the dance on Saturday night in Artisan hall.

Henry Burchell received the news that his daughter Annie was quite ill and he left for Portland at once.

Mrs. Picketts, who has been working for Mr. Finley, came in to town to stay on Monday. She is janitor of our school.

Willis Ward moved his family in from the Bend country and they are now living in the Christenson property on Knob Hill.

Mrs. McMann and Mrs. Mulligan who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Breshears, and other relatives, returned to their home in Walla Walla after a pleasant two weeks spent here.

Chas. Schatz, the Tum a Lum Lumber Co. man, is taking a few days' lay off and visiting around Milton and Walla Walla. Mr. Pointer is "coal and wood" man during Chas.'s absence.

Mary C. Holt.

Mary Caid was born in Virginia, May 23, 1839. Her parents moving to Indiana some years later, August 2, 1864, she was married to George G. Kile. To this union were born two sons, both of whom died in infancy. Losing her husband Sept. 15, 1867, she was again married Dec. 27, 1869, this time to Jas. S. Holt. Two sons gladdened this union, Geo. S. and I. E. About 40 years ago they moved to Iowa, and 15 years later to Astoria, Ore. and from thence to Newberg, Oregon, and about a year ago they came, with their son I. E., (with whom they had lived for several years), to cast their lot with the good people of Morgan. Shortly after their arrival there, her husband was taken from her. The grief and the loneliness, added to her years of affliction, caused her to give up and wish for an early transport to Heaven. She died Aug. 15, 1912 being in her 74th year. This ends the life of almost a life-long member of the Methodist Episcopal church. A long but patient sufferer, and a loving mother, she leaves four sisters and one brother, who live in Indiana, and one son and family to mourn her death. She was buried from the home of her son in Morgan, her funeral, conducted by the Rev. W. A. Pratt, of Heppner was largely attended by the people of the neighborhood.

Rood Canyon Item.

While hauling hay for Paul Webb on Thursday last, Reub Gaunt met with a lively experience. He was coming down the Curtis hill with a big load of bundle hay when a portion of the harness gave way, letting the wagon run onto the horses. This started the team to running straight for a three wire fence and it took some good work on Reubs part to make a turn on the side hill and keep the team out of the fence, but he succeeded in doing it. In order to get out of the fracas himself he had to make a jump from the load and this gave him a badly sprained ankle. He was uninjured otherwise, and thinks it a bum team that couldnt out-run a wagon.

School Notes.

By S. J. Nelson.

The eighth grade examination will be held Sept. 5 and 6. Pupils who expect to take this examination should notify the Superintendent if they have not already done so.

Teachers and school officers should remember that all certificates must be registered each year. Teachers are required to complete the reading circle work as a condition of having their certificates registered.

While this is an unusually busy season, school boards should not neglect to see that the school house is in good condition before the opening of school. The floors should be scrubbed, the windows washed, the shades put in working order, a closed jar or tank or filter provided for the water, the pupils supplied with individual drinking cups or required to furnish themselves with such cups, a supply of crayon and erasers on hand, and the outbuildings should be put in sanitary condition. These may seem like trifles, but it pays to have everything ready and in good condition at the opening of school. The State Board of Health will be more insistent this year than last in regard to the individual drinking cups, and in order to fully meet the requirements a closed water jar or tank should be provided, and this should have a faucet through which the water may be drawn. Attention to the window-boards should be given also, and the windows should be fixed so they may be raised and lowered easily for ventilation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Buschke were visitors in Heppner on Tuesday. Mr. Buschke has been busy with his combine ever since the 10th of July. He had in 2000 acres of grain this year, about two-thirds of which was hit by the big hail storm and cut his yield considerably. He is making an average of 14 bushels to the acre but should have had at least 18 bushels.

Jake Young finished threshing on his farm the past week the 80 acres struck earlier in the season by the hail. It had been stated that the grain was pretty badly damaged—perhaps 25 per cent, but since threshing it is found that the damage was very much more and will be 75 per cent, at least. Other farmers in that section and elsewhere have doubtless suffered in like proportion.

Judge Parker and sheriff Montague, of Condon, visited Heppner on Saturday in the interest of the Tri-County Fair to be held at Condon this Fall. These gentlemen were enthusiastic in behalf of the fair and are very anxious that Heppner and Morrow county shall be well represented there. The fair comes to Morrow county next year, if we desire it, and our citizens should certainly get busy and prepare a fine exhibit for the Condon fair.
